

NEW ENOCH ARDEN COMES BACK, BUT FORGETS LINES

John Brown Doesn't Make a
Hit as Star in Brooklyn
Domestic Drama.

John Brown, who lives at Tenth avenue and Hudson street, turned up in the Flatbush Court, Brooklyn, to-day in the title role of an Enoch Arden drama, when he appeared as defendant to the charge of disorderly conduct. Brown was arrested yesterday afternoon when Mrs. George Rothberg of No. 41 East Fifty-second street called the Flatbush station and asked that policeman be sent to her home to arrest two disorderly men.

The policeman found Brown and William Dorando of No. 1561 East Thirtieth street, Brooklyn, at the woman's home. They were both charged with disorderly conduct. When Magistrate Voorhees called their cases to-day he got this tangled story:

Five years ago Mrs. Rothberg was Mrs. Brown. They lived in Manhattan and he fell sick. The husband was taken to a hospital and the wife became separated from him. When Brown left the institution he went to Key West, Fla., where he obtained employment.

A week ago he came back to New York and began searching for his wife and their little girl. He met Dorando, who is his wife's brother, and Dorando told Brown his sister had married again and was living in Brooklyn. When Brown got her address he started out to find his wife.

When Brown learned he was to play the star role in a new Enoch Arden drama, he was not at all pleased. He proceeded to disregard entirely the orthodox lines and stage business of his part.

Mrs. Rothberg did not seem to be at all pleased at the prospect of having her new home disturbed. She did not believe the man who said he had been her husband was the same person who left her five years ago. Brown then tried to see the child. The mother, still refusing to accept his statement as to his identity, refused to allow him to talk with the little one.

Then Brown went over to Public School No. 13 and demanded to see the little girl. The school officials declined to permit such a course without an order from the mother. Brown left the school and went back to the home and he was there with the brother-in-law, when Mrs. Rothberg called for police protection.

The prisoner established his identity to the satisfaction of the woman and her brother, but the Magistrate held the two men until Saturday for further examination. At that time all of the evidence will be produced concerning the queer tangle of the Brown-Rothberg household.

GUARANTEED
23 JEWELS
SOLID 14 KARAT
GOLD

Just read the four above lines over again and stop to realize what it means to you. This is the offer that will upset the Maiden Lane District (which is the wholesale watch district), more than any drive we have made in months. The 23 Jewel Watches will sell at 15¢ to make big money. The 23 Jewel is the one they so tightly guard their condition of sale around, which forces everybody who wants to buy a 23 Jeweled Watch into paying a big price. He who buys pays for one, he, according to the conditions of sale, only conditionally has possession of it. Not so here. When you buy a watch and pay your money for it at this establishment you become the absolute owner. You get our receipted bill of sale. Now 23 Jewels are engraved on every one of these watches, so that there can be no mistake by the salesman or the purchaser. The cases are stamped and guaranteed to be solid 14K Gold through and through, not a particle of base metal. The model is the handsomest we have had this year. There is a vast difference between the wholesale and retail price of watches. I will not attempt to say in this instance what a retailer would charge for this same kind of watch. It would be unbelievable, but what I do say is that a purchaser may take one of these watches to any wholesale house in this city (and there are dozens of them) and within five minutes walk of here, and if he or she can duplicate it, or any reputable dealer can sell it for less than 15¢, we will gladly refund the money.

FREE We will present to every customer a Patent Watch Protector. We cannot agree to fill all orders for this watch with quite as many as we have of any kind of a watch made. If you happen to know a particular kind of a watch, drop a postal and get our quotation. We will mail you the watch at our usual price.

When the silk is of taffeta or messaline—it is soft and clinging. Then, too, there are many styles with either silk or wool jersey tops. These are the kinds of Petticoats that every woman wants, because bulkiness is impossible with slender costumes.

Plenty of Petticoats for large women, as there are many extra sizes at both prices.
How much would these Petticoats sell for regularly? Exact valuations are rather difficult, as many of these Petticoats were the manufacturer's samples and the others were his surplus collections.

But when a woman examines these Petticoats, she will readily realize their worth and therefore will undoubtedly select several for Christmas giving. If you so desire, we will gladly box one or any number of them.
